

This article by Sirdar Kapur Singh was first published in 1959 in SGPC's monthly journal "Gurmat Parkash" in response to an earlier article by Prof. Ramprakash Singh (Khalsa College, Amritsar). In his article, Prof Ramprakash Singh had claimed that the reference of Noop Kuer (Anup Kaur) in Charitropakhyan was based on a real life incident that happened with Guru Gobind Singh Sahib. Sirdar Kapur Singh rebutted that claim based on the contention that the reference of Noop Kuer narrated by Guru Sahib in Charitropakhyan was a folklore and had no historic significance. This article by Sirdar Sahib was again published in 1993 and we are pleased to present this to our readers, as the first in the series of articles, which will help understand the significance of Charitropakhyan. - Admin
